

huns around one of the many abandoned homesteads. Try your hand at the abundant waterfowl migrating South once you've had your fill of walking.

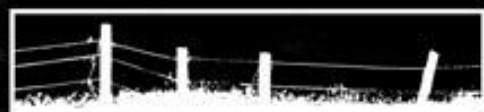

After washing off the dust of the day in your private wet room, enjoy a traditional safari sundowner with drinks and hors d'oeuvres served whilst you digest stunning views of Montana's Big Sky at sunset. Once the sun has retreated, a gourmet dinner is served back at the lodge for you & your companions using the finest local produce and wine. Enjoy what is left of the evening around the fire recalling the highlights of the day while you listen to the coyotes howling in the distance.

Montana Wingshooting Safaris

Set in the legendary plains of Northern Montana, Sage Safaris offers you an epic diversity of wingshooting opportunities. Quality Orvis endorsed guides, experienced dog teams, varied habitats and generous bag limits.

Tented Camp & Gourmet Dining

Home to North America's one and only true Wingshooting Safari. Each Safari tent sleeps 2 and is finished with wooden floors, real beds, a wood stove and campaign furniture. Each tent has its own elegant wet room with permanent heating and a walk-in shower. Drawing from the agricultural wealth of Montana and an appreciation of fine international cuisine, the Chef at Sage Safaris creates exquisite meals using the freshest local ingredients.

Sage Safaris

ORVIS

Endorsed Wingshooting Grounds

Take advantage of our introductory rates and book a Montana Wingshooting Safari today. Call Sage Safaris on 1 406 219 0441, or visit www.sagesafaris.com for more information.

Sage Safaris

ORVIS

Endorsed Wingshooting Grounds

Introducing:

North America's Only
Wingshooting Safari

Set in Montana's Great Plains

A Typical Day

Awaken to a crisp fall morning, your wood stove already lit by your guide, with only canvas to separate you from your remarkable surroundings. Listen to the distinctive call of Sharptail from your tent as you get ready for a beautifully prepared breakfast in the lodge. You will have the opportunity to hunt three species of upland game before returning to the lodge for a 2 course leisurely lunch. In the afternoon, your guide will lead you and a team of dogs back into the field to hunt a new area tailored to your preferred quarry. Sharptail in the mixed sagebrush grasslands, pheasant along the creek bottoms or perhaps

Expect...

Exclusivity

Imagine not having to worry about who you will share the lodge with or strangers shooting beside you. At Sage Safaris, all groups have exclusive use of the lodge and land, so the only people here are the friends you bring with you.

Expect...

Diversity of Game

Shoot an incredible mixed bag of native Sharptail, Huns, & Pheasant throughout the season. Add dove, snipe & multiple waterfowl species to your bag according to the time of year you visit. You will not find diversity like this anywhere else.

Expect...

Safari Traditions

The best of Safari traditions have been moved to Montana's Serengeti. Luxury tented camps, game drives, sundowners, and traditional afternoon tea. You won't find this anywhere else on the continent; this is North America's one and only Wingshooting Safari.

Expect...

Excellence

Bringing you the finest quality not only in wingshooting, but also in service, dining & facilities. This is a boutique lodge retaining that special atmosphere often lost at larger venues. We tailor make every trip to match your needs. Provided it's possible, we'll endeavour to meet any special request.

Open September - December; Prices from $2,400 (3 day, all inclusive)

Take advantage of our introductory rates. Call 1 406 219 0441, e-mail bookings@sagesafaris.com or visit www.sagesafaris.com to book your Montana wingshooting trip today.